The Art of Not Being Sad

The flagship white of Wine Art Estate, Techni Alipias White is a bright, expressive blend crafted to uplift and inspire—true to the meaning of its name: "the art of not being sad." This wine marked the beginning of our journey and continues to be a beloved favorite for its elegance, freshness, and balance.

Grape Varieties

A harmonious blend of Assyrtiko and Sauvignon Blanc, combining native character with international vibrancy.

Vinification

Fermented in stainless steel at controlled temperatures to preserve the varietal purity and aromatic intensity of each grape.

Tasting Notes

- Color: Pale straw yellow with green reflections
- Aroma: Lively citrus and stone fruit (lemon zest, white peach), accented by floral hints and subtle tropical notes
- Palate: Crisp and refreshing with a mineral backbone, balanced acidity, and a clean, lingering finish

FOOD PAIRING

- Grilled fish and seafood
- Fresh salads with citrus vinaigrette
- Goat cheese and herb crostini
- Sushi or ceviche
